

I believe we need tougher laws on the DO NOT CALL LIST, especially when a person still gets calls when they are on the list. I still have been receiving calls which state unknown number and no conversation to find out who they are.. I thought these people are suppose to abide by a persons rights. Please make it tougher on them.. dennis shadrick a concerned citizen